Numb. 141.

THE Pennſylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From Thurſday, July 22. to Thurſday, July 29. 1731.

VIENNA, April 11.

PRIVATE Letters from Conſtantinople adviſe, that the new Grand Seignior ſhews a great Inclination to cultivate the Arts and Sciences in his Dominions; and had for that purpoſe reſolved to erect a College in that Capital, for inſtructing Youth in the Arabick, Perſian, Turkiſh, Greek and Latin Tongues; and alſo to print the Bible in the Turkiſh Language.

Moſcow, April 13. We ſome time ago took Notice, that the Turks who were in Ardebil, had abandoned that Place to the Perſians, and put themſelves under the Protection of the Muſcovites, who with the Conſent of the Perſians were to conduct them to ſome Place of Safety. We have ſince received the following Account of that Matter from General Lewaſcheff, viz. "Prince Thamas's Troops, under "the Command of General Mamet Kuli Kan, having laid "Siege to the City of Ardebil, they carried it on with ſo "ſo great Vigour, that the Baſhaw, finding he could not "hold out any longer, and fearing leſt he and all his "Men ſhould be put to the Sword, he reſolved to make "Application to the Ruſſian General Lewaſcheff, to pro"cure him an honourable Capitulation: In order here"unto, he ſent to him, in the Month of December laſt, "a Perſon in whom he could confide, deſiring him to uſe "his good Offices in that Affair. Thereupon General "Lewaſchaff offered his Mediation to the Perſian General, "who accepted it; and after having exchanged Hoſtages "on both Sides, they agreed that Ali Baſhaw ſhould de"liver up the City Gates to the Perſian Troops; and that "he ſhould afterwards march out with 10 Colours, 4 Stan"dards, and his Garriſon, which was reduced to 160 Foot "and 360 Horſe, to be conducted to Arkara, a Town be"longing to the Czarina, under a Detachment of Ruſſian "Troops; which was accordingly executed: And the Ba"ſhaw having ſtaid there ſome Days, and provided him"ſelf with all Neceſſaries, was conducted from thence, "with all his Men, by another Detachment, to Scamma"chia, belonging to the Turks." The Teſterdar Zaid Mehemet Effendi, Ambaſſador of the Ottoman Port, made his Publick Entry into this City the 21ſt paſt: On the 1ſt Inſtant he had an Audience of the Great Chancellor, to whom he delivered a Letter from the Grand Vizer; and Yeſterday he made a Viſit to the Count d' Oſterman, Vice Chancellor. This Day being the Feaſt of the Annunciation of the Bleſſed Virgin, the Czarina went to Chapel, with a numerous Train of Attendants.

Milan, April 16. We hear the King of Sardinia has publiſhed a Declaration, importing, that if any of his Subjects ſhall preſume to act contrary to his Royal Commands, for fear of the Cenſures of the Court of Rome, they ſhall be hanged up without any Form of Law. They write from Tortona, that the Governor of that Place making a great Feaſt the other Day, the Floor where they ſat fell in, with the Table and all the Company; by which Accident the Governor had one of his Legs broke, and ſeveral of his Gueſts (but none of the Ladies) were hurt or bruiſed.

Paris, April 28. There has been nothing done in Counſeil in relation to the Revival of the Culture of Tobacco of Clarac, but for eſtabliſhing of Manufactures of Tobacco in Guienne and Languedoc, the Project of which has been approved. The write from Rome of the 6th, that the Congregation ſuper Nonnullis had ordered M. Coſcia, Biſhop of Targa, to ſhut himſelf up in a Convent, which is to be his Priſon; and at the ſame time they cited Cardinal Coſcia, his Brother, to appear before them, but his Eminency diſappeared, and no Body knew whether he was gone.

The Abbot Pinnel, who went to our Lady of Loretto, to accompliſh the Vow which the Queen had made for the Birth of the Dauphin, returned the 19th Inſtant, and was to go to Verſailles this Week, to give her Majeſty an Account of his Journey.

The Chain of Galley-Slaves, to the Number of 180, are to ſet out from hence, on Tueſday next for Marſeilles.

On the 24th, the Provoſt des Merchands, and the Corps de Ville, went to the Parliament, and deſired that St. Genevieve's Shrine might be uncovered: Whereupon the Parliament made an Arret, which was immediately notified to the Fathers of St. Genevieve, who after Veſpers entirely uncovered the Shrine, and it is to continue open 9 Days, and if in all that time we have no Rain, it will be carried in Proceſſion. P. S. As it began to rain two Days ago, we ſuppoſe there will be no Proceſſion.

LONDON,

April 22. Laſt Thurſday being Maunday-Thurſday, there was diſtributed at the Banquetting-houſe, Whitehall, to 48 poor Men, and 48 poor Women, (the King's Age 48) boiled Beef and Shoulders of Mutton, and ſmall Bowls of Ale, which is called Dinner; after that, large wooden Platters of Fiſh and Loaves, viz undreſs'd, 1 large old Ling, and 1 large dry'd Cod, 12 red Herrings, 12 white Herrings, and 4 Half-quartern Loaves; each Perſon had 1 Platter of this Proviſion: After which was diſtributed to them Shoes and Stockings, linnen and wollen Cloth, and leathern Bags of Silver, with 1 Penny, 2 Penny, 3 Penny and 4 Penny Pieces of Silver, and Shillings: The whole value to each is ſuppoſed to be worth 4 l. His Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of York, Lord High Almoner, performed the annual Ceremony of waſhing the Feet of a certain Number of poor in the Royal Chapel, Whitehall, which was formerly done by the Kings themſelves, in imitation of our Saviour's Pattern of Humility, &c. James II. was the laſt King, who performed this in Perſon.

Mr. Macguire, the Prize-fighter, had his Noſe cut clear from his Face by Mr. Sutton, at Mr. Figg's Amphitheatre laſt Wedneſday.

We hear that the learned Dr. Halley has laid his Propoſals for finding the Longitude before the Commiſſioners appointed by Act of Parliament for that Purpoſe.

Yeſterday a Man-ſervant to an Apothecary in Leadenhall-ſtreet, being thought to be diſordered in his Senſes, made an Attempt to ſhoot himſelf, but the Maid-ſervant happening to come into the Room, and interrupting him, he ſhot her dead on the Spot.

Alberuſt in Cardiganſhire, April 11. On the 4th near 100 of large Fiſh, of near 6 Yards in Length, were drove on this Shore by the late eaſterly Winds: It is expected that ſeveral Tons of Oyl will be produced from them. They are taken to be Grampuſſes; and cauſe no ſmall Speculation among the Country People.

A few Days ſince a young Lady of great Fortune, and ſecond Siſter to a noble Earl, was married, unknown to her Friends, to a Gentleman who carried her off, and has not been heard of ſince.

May 11. The Sum of 5000 l. is ordered for rebuilding the Pariſh Church of Graveſend.

A few Days ago died Mr. Daniel Defoe, Sen. a Perſon well known for his numerous and various Writings.

We hear from Baldock in Hertfordſhire, that about a Week or two ago, the Son of Mr. Graves of that Town, (a young Lad of 14 Years of Age) was married to Mrs. Luke, Daughter of Sir Samuel Luke, a Maiden Lady, aged 70.

We hear his Majeſty has been pleaſed to grant to Mr. Juſtinian Morſe, of Barnet in the County of Hertford, a Patent for the ſole making and vending a new invented Organ, which is brought to ſuch Perfection, that any Perſon unskill'd in Muſick may be inſtantly inſtructed to play Pſalm Tunes, Voluntaries, Anthems, or any other Muſick, tho' never ſo difficult; and play a fuller Thorough Baſs than can be poſſibly performed by the Fingers alone on common Keys, and done entirely without Barrels; and may be made either with the open Diapazon, or the Principal in the Front; and of any Height, Size, or Price. Deſigned for the Uſe of Churches or Chapels in ſuch Pariſhes as cannot afford, or are unwilling to be at the Expence of the conſtant Attendance of an Organiſt; or for Gentlemen's Houſes.

The Inhabitants of Kingſton upon Thames have ſubſcribed 1000 l. to be added to the King's Bounty of 500 l. for rebuilding their Chapel, which is to be done by Mr. Ripley, the Church being in ſo ruinous and dangerous a Condition, that great Numbers of People have declined going to it.

Forty-five Thouſand Pounds is order'd to be iſſued by the Treaſury, for rebuilding the King's Meuſe at Charing Croſs, and the old Stabling contiguous to St. James's Houſe.

Two Yachts are to be placed in the Serpentine River in Hyde-Park, for the Diverſion of the Royal Family.

Laſt Week died in Childbed the Lady Pryce, Wife of Sir John Pryce of Newton-hall in Montgomeryſhire, Bart. one of the ancienteſt Families in all Wales, being the 92d in a lineal Deſcent from Henwin Duke of Cornwal, and the hundred and ſecond from Brutus, the firſt King of this Iſland: She was a Lady of ſingular Goodneſs, Piety, and Charity, without Oſtentation; and Daughter of the late Sir Thomas Powell, of Broadway in Carmarthenſhire, Bart. and Grandaughter of Judge Powell, who acted with ſo much Integrity at the Trial of the ſeven Biſhops, Temp. Jac. 2.

It is written from Lisbon, that the Pernambuque Fleet was ſafely arrived there. The Cargo of which Fleet conſiſts of 9300 Cheſts of Sugar, 80000 Half-Hides, a conſiderable Quantity of Wood and other Merchandizes; and in Gold, the Value of 1,500,000 Cruſado's, each Cruſado four Tenths of 5 s 7 d. and for want of Ships, Sugar ſufficient to load three or four large Ships was left behind.

The Monument erected to the Memory of the great Sir Iſaac Newton, being near finiſhed, we thought the following Deſcription would not be diſagreeable to our Readers, till a better ſhall be publiſhed. On a Pedeſtal is placed a Sarcophagus (or ſtone Coffin) upon the Front of which are Boys in Baſſo relievo, with Inſtruments in their Hands, denoting his ſeveral Diſcoveries, viz. one with a Priſm, on which principally his admirable Book of Light and Colours is founded; another with a reflecting Teleſcope, whoſe great Advantages are now ſo well known; another Boy is weighing the Sun and Planets with a Stilliard, the Sun being near the Centre on one Side, and the Planets on the other, alluding to a celebrated Propoſition in his Principia; another is buſy about a Furnace, and two others (near him) are loaded with Money, as newly coined, intimating his Office in in the Mint. On the Sarcophagus his own Figure is placed, in a cumbent Poſture, his Elbow reſting on the ſeveral incomparable Books written by him; two Boys ſtand before him with a Scroll, on which is drawn a remarkable Diagram relating to the ſolar Syſtem; and over that a converging Series, an Invention which ſhews the utmoſt Stretch of human Underſtanding. Behind the Sarcophagus is a Pyramid; from the middle of it a Globe ariſes in Mezzo-relievo, on which ſeveral of the Conſtellations are drawn, in order to ſhew the Path of the Comet in 1681, whoſe Period he has with the greateſt Sagacity determined: And alſo the Poſition of the Solſtitial Colure mentioned by Hipparchus, by which (in his Chronology) he has fixed the time of the Argonautic Expedition. On the Globe ſits the Figure of Aſtronomy weeping, with a Sceptre in her Hand (as Queen of the Sciences) and a Star over her Head on the Pyramid.

Hic depoſitum eſt quod mortale fuit,
ISAACI NEWTONI.

A Perſon is now actually at Work, in cutting the following Epitaph, on the Monument.

Hic ſitus eſt

Extract of a private Letter from Conſtantinople, dated March 26, 1731.

A Courier being on Departure for Vienna, we have an Opportunity to acquaint you, that on the 13th Inſtant in the night broke out another Rebellion, which increaſed preſently to 2 or 3000 Men; and ſuch a Plot was laid, as would have made it as formidable a one as the former, had not the Reſolution of the Miniſtry happily prevented it by the Vizier and Janizary Aga's ſallying out of the Seraglio by Day-break with Mahomet's Standard, accompanied by moſt of the Grand Seignior's Attendants, and were met not only by the Captain Baſhaw with his Levants, but the enraged Shopkeepers immediately joined them, ſome with Swords or Piſtols, but moſt with Clubs. They marched towards the Rebels Rendezvous at Etmedan, and in their Way they met with a Party of about 200 or 250 of them, which they attacked in the narrow Streets; tho' few, they defended themſelves very bravely at firſt, but were ſoon over-powered, ſome were killed on the Spot, others fled for it. This ſtruck ſuch a Terror in the Rebels Camp, that they ran to the Janizaries Chambers for Protection, where they were received; which made it clear to the Miniſtry, that the Chief of the Soldiery were againſt them, wherefore they have ſince broke moſt of the Officers, and diſpatched near 5000 Janizaries up the Black Sea, in their way to Perſia. We are very quiet now, but there's great private Maſſacres every Night, for moſt of the Ringleaders are ſeized, and convicted by their Correſpondents; but the Chief is the late Grand Seignior's Concubine and her Daughter, Wife to the late Vizier Ibrahim Baſhaw, whoſe Eſtates are confiſcated, and 'tis ſuppoſed they are ſtrangled, as they had made large Promiſes of Reward in caſe the Deſign had ſucceeded. The Tumult was in Favour of the late Grand Seignior, and 'twas at his Inſtigation likewiſe, ſo 'tis conjectur'd he will ſoon die a violent Death. The People in general rejoyce much at the Vizier's Succeſs, for if the Malecontents had not been quickly ſuppreſſed, great Plunder would have followed; and their Intent was certainly to ſet the City on Fire in divers Places, that the Miniſtry might be more confuſed; and ſome have been caught with combuſtible Stuff, and immediately executed.

London, May 15. The laſt Letters from Paris import, that the French King had reſolved to write a Letter of Congratulation to the Grand Seignior upon his Acceſſion to the Throne, but had alter'd his Mind upon Information of the Inſurrection happening at Conſtantinople, and it is believed he will keep his Compliment till it be known what Conſequences the ſaid Rebellion be attended with. In the mean time, the Inſtability of the Ottoman Empire gives room to fear for the Commerce of the French Merchants in Turkey, who have been already expoſed to divers Inſults, tho' much leſſer than thoſe done to the Subjects of the Emperor.

By a Mail arrived this Afternoon from Holland, there is Advice from Vienna of the 9th Inſtant, N. S. that according to their laſt Letters from Conſtantinople, the laſt Inſurrection tion happened there was not ſo conſiderable as was at firſt reported; the Particulars whereof are as follows, On the Night between the 25th and 26th of March, 2000 Malecontents aſſembled together in the Neighbourhood of the Seraglio, with a Deſign to attack it, in order to dethrone the new Sultan, and put again into his Place the depoſed Sultan, but the Grand Vizier having Notice of it, gathered with all poſſible Diligence 600 Men, whom he poſted at the Avenues of the Seraglio, and took during the Night all the neceſſary Meaſures to ſecure the ſame from the Inſults of the Rebels, and the next Day made a Sally upon them, with the Standard of Mahomet, who on their Side made all their Efforts to make themſelves Maſters of the Standard, but in vain, which ſo confounded them, that many came over to the Grand Vizier, and turned their Arms againſt their Companions, of whom ſeveral were maſſacred, and ſo ended the Revolt. The Grand Seignior did not retire out of Conſtantinople, as was ſaid.

They write from Hanover of the 15th Inſtant that the K. of Sweden is expected there on his way to Caſſel, and will lodge in the Caſtle of Herenhauſen, where they are making great Preparations for his Reception.

The Count de Broglio, Ambaſſador from France to the Court of Great Britain, embarked at Dover laſt Friday Morning, for Paris, on his private Affairs, deſigning to return as ſoon as he has ſettled them, having left his Family behind him.

DUBLIN, April 17.

On the 7th Inſtant, Mary Reddin was tried for the Murder of her Husband and Son, (mentioned in the Gazette No. 734.) by giving each of them a Blow with a Hatchet on the Temples, at Cunis in the County of Clare, and found guilty of the Fact. It is believed ſhe alſo murdered her firſt Husband.

The Latin Inſcription made by the Rev. Dean Swift, Dean of St. Patrick's, and agreed to by the Chapter to be placed over the Vault where the Body of the great Duke Schomberg lies, is as follows:

Hic infra
Situm eſt Corpus
Frederici
Ducis de Schomberg,
Ad Bubindam
Occidi,
A. D. 1690.

Decanus & Capitulum maximopere etiam atque etiam petierunt, ut hæredes Ducis, in memoriam Parentis, Monumentum quantumvis Exile erigi curarent. Sed poſtquam per Epiſtolas, per Amicos, diu ac ſæpe orando, nil profecere, hunc Lapidem indignabundi poſuerunt, ſaltem ut ſcias hoſpes quantilla in Cellulla, tanti Ductoris Cineres, in opprobrium Hæredum deliteſcunt. Plus valuit virtutis fama apud Alienos quam Sanguinis Proximitas apud ſuos. A. D. 1731.

Tranſlated thus,

Here underneath lieth the Body of Frederick Duke of Schomberg, who was ſlain at the Boyn in the Year 1690. The Dean and Chapter of St. Patrick's did moſt earneſtly, over and over again, requeſt that the Heirs of the Duke would be pleaſed to erect a Monument, however ſo plain and ſmall, to his Memory; but when by long and frequent Solicitations, both by Letters and by Friends, nothing could be obtained, grieved for the Indignity offered to the Memory of ſo great a Man, they fixed up this Stone, that thou, O Stranger, mighteſt know in how poor a Cell the Aſhes of ſo great a General lie neglected, to the Reproach of his Heirs. So much could the Admiration of his Virtues avail with Strangers, more than the neareſt Ties of Blood could with his own Relations. Anno Dom. 1731.

BOSTON, July 12.

By a Letter from New-London we are informed, that at Wallingford in Connecticut, a Negro Woman went up to the Chamber where two of her Maſter's Daughters lay, and made a Paſs with a Knife at the Stomach of one of the Daughters, but her Ribs prevented the Knife from going into her Body; but ſhe cut the others Throat, and ſhe died immediately.

We hear from Weſton, that laſt Week a Man of that Place having brought home a Bottle of Rum; his Children came about him, and he gave ſome to two of them, but a Boy of about five Years of Age refuſed to take any, deſiring his Mother twice to ſet it up: The Man and his Wife being gone out, this Child took the Bottle of Rum and drank ſo freely, that it died in a ſhort time after.

NEW-YORK, July 16.

On the 14th Inſtant arrived here the Brigantine Patience, John Hudſon Maſter, from Briſtol, he ſailed thence the 26th of May, by whom we have the following News, That Spain will not accede to the Vienna Treaty without the Concurrence of France and the Delivery of Gibraltar. That France will not acceed to that Treaty, and that we are like to have a War with France and Spain.

A Letter from Briſtol of the 25th of May ſays, 28 Men of War from 60 to 80 Guns were put in Commiſſion, and that 30 more Men of War would be put in Commiſſion in a few Days; That the Parliament were to ſit the next Month; and that a War with Spain was ſpeedily expected.

The White-hall Evening-Poſt of the 20th of May ſays, That the Grand Seignior had impriſoned the Venetian Ambaſſador in the Seven Towers, which is looked upon as the Forerunner of a War on that Side, which will engage the Emperor in it. That the Spaniards have, and ſtill are carrying on their Fortifications ſo near to Gibraltar, that the Garriſon will be under the Neceſſity of firing upon them.

Cuſtom-Houſe, New-York, July 26. Inward Entries. Everdon from Newfoundland, Vater and Payton from Dover, Lawrence from St. Thomas's, Teneyk from Boſton.

Entred out, Hinman for Jamaica, Hudſon and Everdon for Newfoundland, Robinſon for Boſton, Smith for Barbadoes. Cleared out, Phœnix to Barbadoes, Hinman to Jamaica, Robinſon to Boſton, Hudſon and Everdon to Newfoundland.

PHILADELPHIA, July 29.

By Letters from New-York we hear, That Vater and Payton in two Brigantines are arrived there from Dover; the firſt had twelve Weeks Paſſage, the latter ſailed thence the 29th of May, by whom we have Advice, that Drums were beating about there to Man the Navy; but not any Preſs; that it was believed we ſhould ſoon have a War with France and Spain, and that 'twas expected an Embargo would be laid in a ſhort Time.

Saturday laſt, one Michael Burniron, being in a Fever and delirious; took an Opportunity when no Body was in the Room, and went out unknown to the Family; he is ſince found drowned in the Delaware.

The Sunday following, a Negro Man ſwimming in the River, ſuddenly cry'd out, and ſunk; he roſe once or twice, but has not ſince been ſeen: The People who lookd on, thought him in jeſt; but 'tis ſuppoſed he was ſeized with the Cramp.

Tueſday laſt, one Robert Wright, a Seaman belonging to the Ship Three Batchelors; being at the Main Topmaſt Head, accidentally fell down, and was ſo bruiſed that he died in about two Hours after.

A Pair of King-Birds have lately built their Neſt, and hatch'd their Eggs among the Rigging of a Ship lying in this River.

We are credibly inform'd, that the young Woman who not long ſince petitioned the Governor, and the Aſſembly to be divorced from her Husband, and at times induſtriouſly ſolicited moſt of the Magiſtrates on that Account, has at laſt concluded to cohabit with him again. It is ſaid the Report of the Phyſicians (who in Form examined his Abilities, and allowed him to be in every reſpect ſufficient,) gave her but ſmall Satisfaction; Whether any Experiments more ſatisfactory have been try'd, we cannot ſay; but it ſeems ſhe now declares it as her Opinion, That George is aſ good aſ de beſt.

We hear from New-York, That one of the Daughters of Mr. Delancey, Merchant in that Place, is lately married to the Captain of the Shoreham Man of War, ſtationed there.

To Morrow Mr. Read's Mare Polley and Mr. Chancellor's Now or Never, are to run again on Paſſayunk Road for Twenty Pounds a Side.
